POST MODERN CENTENNIAL EVENTS

May 2-31, Monday-Friday, 11 am-3 pm and 5-7 pm;
Saturday, 10 am-6 pm

The POST Modern
300 East Stewart

The historic downtown post office and federal courthouse, which was transferred to the City of Las Vegas by the federal government, will be open during May for special centennial programs. The public is invited to participate in several programs celebrating the centennial and to take the opportunity to view the building (docent tours are available), which is undergoing renovation and reuse as a cultural facility.

Collage Dance Theatre

Friday, May 6, 7 pm, 7:45 pm, 8:30 pm, 9:15 pm

The POST Modern
300 East Stewart

First Friday comes to the POST Modern with performances by the award-winning Collage Dance Ensemble, a site-specific performance dance company that serves up visions of the past with more than a pinch of surrealism. For this special occasion, the company has created a “satiric romp through Las Vegas’ historic courthouse... and will proceed to turn courtroom jargon and rituals upside down and inside out.” Free parking is available at the Clark County Government Center (Grand Central Parkway) and paid parking at the garage on 4th and Stewart. Free trolley service between the POST Modern and the Arts District begins at 6 pm on a 20-minute loop for all of the usual First Friday events. See First Friday for details.

Community Conversations

Wednesdays, May 4, 11, 18 and 25, 7-9 pm

The POST Modern
300 East Stewart

Moderated panel discussions focus on the evolution of our town from the perspective of the legal community, the African-American community, labor unions and women in commerce. Self-guided tours of the POST Modern available from 6-6:45. Reception each evening.

The Best Is Yet to Come

Saturday, May 14

Cocktails, 6:30-7:30 pm; dancing, 8-11 pm

The POST Modern
300 East Stewart

Dance to the music of Count Basie’s Orchestra, listen to the fluid notes of singer Nnenna Freelon, and dine on tantalizing specialties from Andre’s French Restaurant in celebration of the distinguished career of the Honorable Lloyd D. George. The POST Modern is transformed into the feeling of a bygone supper club; expect the unexpected.

FIRST FRIDAY

Fridays, May 6, June 3, 6-10 pm

Arts District
Main Street and Charleston Boulevard

Experience the downtown art vibe at the monthly Arts District’s block party and open house. Enjoy live entertainment, visit gallery openings, go antiquing, or stop for a meal or drink at a restaurant or lounge. Free arts bus and trolley service begins at 6 pm at the Arts Factory and at the Clark County Government Center, Grand Central Parkway, where free parking is available.

FIRST FRIDAY 100 YEARS/100 ARTISTS

A celebration of the creativity of Las Vegas

May 6, 6-10 pm and May 7, 10 am-5 pm

Arts District
Main Street and Charleston Boulevard

To celebrate Las Vegas’ 100th birthday, First Friday offers a special event, artwork by 100 local artists. Stroll the streets around the Arts District and see the diversity of works being created by our contemporary artists. Trolley service will be available on Saturday, also, with stops at the Arts District, Clark County Government Center (free parking), 4th and Fremont, and 3rd and Stewart, where visitors may tour the POST Modern.

DOWNTOWN CULTURAL SERIES

Fridays, 12-1 pm

Lloyd D. George U.S. Courthouse
333 Las Vegas Boulevard South

Bring a sack lunch or partake of the light refreshments available.

May 20

Dr. Michael Green, Centennial Discussion

Discover the times past of this dynamic town! In celebration of the city’s 100th birthday, Community College of Southern Nevada Professor Dr. Michael Green discusses significant themes and myths in Las Vegas’ history. Green has co-authored, with Dr. Eugene Moehring of UNLV, Las Vegas: A Centennial History.

June 17

Patricia Welch Sings Her Favorites

Multi-talented vocalist Patricia Welch returns to the courthouse for a solo performance of Broadway favorites, from My Fair Lady to Phantom of the Opera. Welch, who recently toured with Robert Goulet, has performed for United States Presidents, on Broadway and cruise ships, and with orchestras and symphonies throughout the world. Piano accompaniment provided by Graef “Bud” Crystal.

SECOND SATURDAYS IN THE CULTURAL CORRIDOR

Saturday, June 11, 10 am-3 pm

Las Vegas Boulevard North at Cashman Center Drive

June 11 inaugurates Second Saturdays, a special day of art, history and culture that will be held the second Saturday of each month in the downtown neighborhood that is home to the Lied Discovery Children’s Museum, Las Vegas Natural History Museum, Neon Museum, the Reed Whipple Cultural Center, the Old Mormon Fort, and the Las Vegas Library. The Old Mormon Fort, celebrating 150 years of history, hosts a grand opening of its visitors’ center. Look for the Arts Trolley that stops at each site and catch some of the special activities along the way, including food and drink vendors.

2ND ANNUAL ANSAN PARK CONCERT SERIES

Fridays, 7 pm

Ansan Sister Park
Ducharme west of Buffalo

Bring the family, blankets, lawn chairs and a picnic or purchase food from a vendor and spend summer evenings listening to live music.

June 3 Derek Sholl

From baseball to country music has been a short step for guitarist/singer/songwriter Derek Sholl. In his short musical career, he's already been nominated for "Best Male Country Artist" at the Los Angeles Music Awards and opened for Jay Leno at The Mirage Hotel & Casino. Sholl's repertoire of heartfelt ballads and rockin' country dance songs has him heading for the top.

June 10 The SpellCasters

The SpellCasters are committed to keeping the blues alive while playing homage to blues traditions. They perform an array of blues styles ranging from back porch acoustics to Louisiana/Cajun, from Chicago to Texas roadhouse.

June 17 Ken Levine and Jump, Jive & Wail

Las Vegas' premier eight-piece swing band closes out the series with a bang. Playing the hits of the '30s-'50s from Cab Calloway, Duke Ellington and the three Louies, Armstrong, Jordan and Prima, to the new swing stars of today, Levine and the boys are out to prove that swing is king, again! The clothes are cool, the dancing's hot, and the music... well it reminds you of how much fun music can be.

100 YEARS CELEBRATION... A CELEBRATION OF SWING

Adelaide Robbins: The Lady and Her Music

Sunday, June 12, 4-6 pm

West Las Vegas Arts Center

Adelaide Robbins, a native of New York City, graduated from the High School of Music, The Eastman School of Music, has earned two degrees and taught piano at the Manhattan School of Music, and has played in many Broadway productions. She has performed with such notables as the Billy May Big Band, the Buddy Rich Big Band, Tex Beneke, Buddy Marrow and Birdland and worked with singers such as Ruth Brown, both in New York and Los Angeles.

Since 1967 she has lived in Las Vegas and has performed with the best musicians up and down the Strip. We commemorate musician Adelaide Robbins, a Las Vegas living legend, in a swing matinee.

FATHER'S DAY BIG BAND CONCERT

Don Burke Orchestra

June 19, 7 pm (gates open at 6 pm)

Sammy Davis Jr. Festival Plaza in Lorenzi Park
West Washington Avenue, west of Rancho

Celebrate Father's Day as the Don Burke Orchestra performs classic hits of the 1930s-'80s. Enjoy songs from celebrated greats, such as Glenn Miller, the Dorseys, Benny Goodman, and more, with the blend of brass, reeds and rhythm as only a big band can swing it. Bring lawn chairs and/or blankets and picnic. Free hot dogs, chips, and soda while supplies last.

DYNAMIC TROMBONE QUINTET

RAINBOW COMPANY YOUTH THEATRE

Bridge to Terabithia

June 3, 4, 9, 10, 11 • 7 pm

June 5, 11, 12 • 2 pm

Charleston Heights Arts Center

This powerful adaptation of the Newberry Medal novel takes its audience on a journey of discovery: from new-found friendship to a safe fantasy kingdom, startling tragedy, and, finally, to unexpected strength and the magical power of shared dreams. Ages 9 through adult won't want to miss this cherished story, filled with warmth and undeniable optimism.

An interpreter for the hearing-impaired is provided on the June 9 performance.

PAUL RAJECKAS

Notes to the Motherland

Saturday, June 11, 7 pm

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

In a one-man tour de force reminiscent of Buster Keaton and Charlie Chaplin, Paul Rajeckas of New York's Movement Theatre recreates the epic story of his family's escape from Nazi Europe. When American-Lithuanian Paulius Bombalytis stumbles upon a diary that reveals a dark family secret, he embarks on a search for the truth. The result is a psychological journey back in time, from present day New York to pre-World War II Lithuania. Rajeckas, playing every character, and co-writer George L. Chieffet tell a heartfelt family saga that uncovers fear, shifting loyalties, anti-Semitism and betrayal.

TUMBLEWORDS WITH DAYVID FIGLER

Performance: Friday, June 17, 7 pm

Workshop: Saturday, June 18, 2 pm

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

Well-known Las Vegas poet Dayvid Figler presents an evening of readings about the history of Las Vegas and a writing workshop the following afternoon. Figler has followed two paths with equal enthusiasm his entire life. On one hand, he became one of the youngest lawyers in Nevada history when he passed the bar at age 23. The other path as a performer/humorist is also paved with success. In 1994 he took the main stage at Lollapalooza to amuse the crowd (opening for the Beastie Boys) and never looked back. He has been awarded two fellowships by the Nevada Arts Council for performance art, has performed for sold-out audiences, has written for numerous publications (including SPIN magazine), and has been a featured monthly commentator on national radio.

COMMUNITY ROOTS GALLERY

Remembering Mexican Revolutionary Heroes

Argu*May 3-June 28Reception: Friday, May 6, 5 pm*

West Las Vegas Arts Center

Artist Argu exhibits paintings in honor of Mexican Independence Day. He says, “I can honestly say that emotions expressed on my paintings are solemn and virtue. The need for art for the arts has been the formula to show the irrationalities of the world and have given the way to majestic creations of the mind....” – Argu

In celebration of the Centennial, the City of Las Vegas galleries will feature some of Las Vegas' finest artists throughout 2005.

Guest curator Jerry Schefcik, director of the Donna Beam Fine Art Gallery, has put together two exciting exhibitions about Las Vegas by Las Vegas artists.

BRIGHT LIGHT CITY

Through May 15

Charleston Heights Arts Center

“Bright Light City celebrates a diversity of interpretations evoked from living and working in one of the most widely known cities on the planet. Las Vegas is regarded at the same time with awe and wonder as well as with loathing and disdain. The exhibit includes a variety of paintings, drawings, photographs and sculpture by Las Vegas artists Dennis Angel, Robert Beckmann, Chad Brown, Diane Bush, Keith Conley, Kathy Garlock, Julie Madden, Charles Morgan and Jim Pink. Each uniquely interprets this place they call home.” – Jerry Schefcik

INDULGENCE

Through June 5

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

“Indulgence brings together works by several contemporary artists who live and work in Las Vegas. Each indulges his/her passion for making art that can be described as showy, evocative, seductive or simply beautiful. Attitude is as much an element as anything else ascribed to it. Featured will be paintings, sculptures and photographs, very much in keeping with a Vegas sensibility. Exhibiting artists include Jose Bellver, Mark Brandvik, Thomas Burke, Tom Coleman, Curtis Fairman, Jack Hallberg, Shawn Hummel, Angela Kallus, Jerry Misko, David Ryan, Mary Warner, Bob Wysocki and Yek.” – Jerry Schefcik

VIVA THE CENTENNIAL: CITY OF 100 MURALS

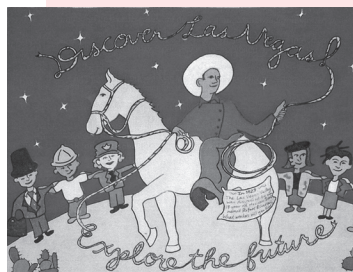

Through August 26

Bridge Gallery

City Hall, 2nd Floor, 4th Street and Stewart Avenue

The City of 100 Murals, co-partnered by the Clark County Library District and the Las Vegas Arts Commission, celebrates the Centennial throughout 2005 with an expansive public art project that tells the story of Las Vegas through murals created by local artists, schoolchildren and other community members. Included in this exhibit are original mural renderings and other works by a number of artists participating in the Centennial program.

Also on display on the skybridge connecting City Hall and the Bridge Gallery to the parking garage are colorful artist banners from the Aerial Gallery project. Both exhibits are open Monday-Friday, 8 am-5 pm.
